THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Parish Mission:

Come to know, love and serve God by knowing, loving and serving our neighbors through the Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ.

Parish Vision:

To be a Christ centered sacramental parish community, forming intentional disciples while nurturing personal relationships with Jesus.

From the Desk of Fr. Charles

Sunday, May 5, 2024
JMJ

Dear St. Mary Parishioners,

The Easter Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist, have been bringing joy to many members of our parish this year. This weekend is another time to celebrate with twenty-six children making their First Eucharist. Making your First Eucharist is a beautiful experience marking a significant step in one’s relationship with Christ and the Church. Children are precious to our Lord. He said, “Let the little children come to me.” Matthew 19:14.

I would encourage everyone to retell your memories of your First Communion and Confirmation. Those are faith stories we can tell. Who knows? Maybe your faith story will inspire someone to grow in their faith. Sharing a faith story is one, small way towards making good on the exhortation at the end of Mass: “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.”

Please continue to lift all twenty-six children in your prayers. Join us in praying that we all more fully discover God’s presence alive in our personal stories. And that each of our stories are woven together in the body of Jesus Christ. By God’s design, we are a communion of saints here on earth destined for eternity. This is the meaning of Holy Communion, the meaning of Holy Mass, the meaning of our lives. Amen. Alleluia!

Fr. Charles J. Bladung

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 5, 2024 | 6th Sunday of Easter

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, “He is mistaken about our friendship. I don’t recall ever having suffered with him.” As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I’m not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn’t the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JP II? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, “You are my friends if you do what I command you” (John 15:14). In Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you’ll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you’ve suffered together a great deal.

— Father John Muir
